CLOUGH COMPLETES HENRY WALKER ELTIN TRANSACTION

Clough Limited (ASX:CLO) has completed the transaction with the Henry Walker Eltin Administrator to buy its Western Australian Civil construction business.

As a result of the transaction Clough has obtained the name "Clough Walker Civils", associated intellectual property and HWE's 45% interest in the Roe 7 highway extension project.

Clough has transferred the jobs and entitlements of thirteen former HWE employees to its payroll. These entitlements include annual leave, long service leave and other accrued benefits.
